NO CHANGE IN INTEREST RATES FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF 2007

IR-2006-190, Dec. 12, 2006

WASHINGTON – The Internal Revenue Service today announced there will be no change in the interest rates for the calendar quarter beginning January 1, 2007. The interest rates are as follows:

- eight (8) percent for overpayments [seven (7) percent in the case of a corporation];
  - eight (8) percent for underpayments;
  - ten (10) percent for large corporate underpayments; and
- five and one-half (5.5) percent for the portion of a corporate overpayment exceeding $10,000.

Under the Internal Revenue Code, the rate of interest is determined on a quarterly basis. For taxpayers other than corporations, the overpayment and underpayment rate is the federal short-term rate plus 3 percentage points. Generally, in the case of a corporation, the underpayment rate is the federal short-term rate plus 3 percentage points and the overpayment rate is the federal short-term rate plus 2 percentage points. The rate for large corporate underpayments is the federal short-term rate plus 5 percentage points. The rate on the portion of a corporate overpayment of tax exceeding $10,000 for a taxable period is the federal short-term rate plus one-half (0.5) of a percentage point.

The interest rates announced today are computed from the federal short-term rate based on daily compounding determined during October 2006.

Rev. Rul. 2006-63, announcing the new rates of interest, is attached and will appear in Internal Revenue Bulletin No. 2006-52, dated December 26, 2006.
